Baptist Church Opens Special Meetings Today

Mel Dibble, former television star, begins a week of Evangelistic meetings today in the First Baptist Church, 2118 W. Carson, according to the Rev. Morgan Gates, pastor.

John and Bobbie Ladgraf will direct the Crusade Choir and present a special entertainment at the Crusade for Christ.

LEAD SINGING... John and Bobbie Ladgraf will direct the Crusade Choir during special series at First Baptist Church, 2118 W. Carson St.

Both are acknowledged as two of the finest musicians in the evangelistic field, Rev. Gates said. They are 22 years of age, graduates of Wheaton College, and along with their special music, will work directly with teen-agers.

Lesson Topic

The Lesson-Sermon given in all Christian Science churches today will speak of the great reverence of the Christian Scientists for the Master, Christ Jesus, and of the obligation of his followers to live the lives and do the works Jesus admonished them to do as evidence of salvation. The subject is "Christ Jesus."

John, the beloved disciple, records that Jesus "went up into the temple, and taught." Later Jesus declares, "My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself." Again he says, "He that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him" (7:14, 16-18).

Dibble, former television star on the NBC network, broadcasting out of Cincinnati, is the evangelist. Gifted with an unusual platform presentation, Mel appeals to all groups and all ages. Five years ago when Billy Graham was in Cincinnati, Mel Dibble had a personal conference with him. As a result, Mel resigned his television work to become a full-time evangelist. During the Billy Graham New York Crusade in 1957, as Associate Evangelist, Mel was in charge of a television series "Impact," which was presented nightly.

Mrs. George Dibble, Mel's mother, is an exceptional, dynamic Christian leader, lovingly known as "Ma" Dibble, Rev. Gates said, and she will be holding week-day meetings Monday through Friday at 10 a.m.

The crusade begins at 10 a.m. this morning, concluding at 7:30 p.m. next Sunday, March 6. Meetings will be held at 7:30 p.m. nightly, including Saturday.

"Our Nursery is always open and we do hope that many who have not yet visited our church will bring their friends to hear these outstanding guests," Rev. Gates said in extending the invitation.

Construction Of New Gas Line Slated

Contracts have been awarded for construction of a new 115-mile, 36-inch diameter pipeline to bring additional supplies of natural gas into the Los Angeles basin, it was announced today by Carl W. Shupp, division manager for the Southern California Gas Co.

The line, which will stretch from Newberry in the Mojave Desert through the Cajon Pass to Placentia in Orange County, will be known as the "Cajon Pass Pipeline."

CONSTRUCTION work has been divided into two portions. Contract for the portion extending from Newberry to the foot of Canyon Pass near Fontana has been awarded to Young and Anderson Co. of Brea.

The portion from Fontana to Placentia will be a joint venture of Hood Construction Co. of Whittier; J. P. Neill, Inc. of Dallas, Texas, and Morrison-Knudsen Co. of Los Angeles.

Shupp explained that construction on the project, cost of which is estimated at approximately $19 million, is expected to start early in March, with completion anticipated before Aug. 1.

WHEN COMPLETED, the pipeline will permit delivery into the Los Angeles basin of an additional 300 million cubic feet of gas daily. The new gas supplies will be available at Newberry from pipeline facilities now being built by Pacific Lighting Gas Supply Co. to receive out-of-state gas from Transwestern Pipeline Co. of Texas.

It is planned that the Cajon Pass pipeline will also be used for delivery to Southland gas customers of additional out-of-state gas supplies, approval of which is now pending before the California Public Utilities Commission and the Federal Power Commission.
